

My name is Jane Cook, and I am very proud to be the Head teacher at Amblecote Primary School. On behalf of the pupils, staff and governors at Amblecote Primary, I am pleased to welcome you to our school website and hope that it offers you a chance to develop some understanding of our school. We are at present updating our website, so keep checking for more information!

At Amblecote Primary we aim to create and foster a love of lifelong learning within a safe, stimulating and happy environment in which every person matters. We believe that your child deserves the best and we aim to provide excellence in terms of the learning opportunities and experiences provided for them within school. This is encompassed in our vision, 'At Amblecote we achieve, because in our pupils we believe'

Our staff are highly trained, caring and committed to working with your child to achieve and be the best that they can be both on a personal and academic level. We believe that our children learn best when the school works in partnership with parents, carers and governors. If you have a concern or worry about your child then please contact school as soon as possible so that we can help.

It is our ambition to equip all of our children with the key skills and values they will need to thrive in our rapidly changing world. We actively encourage children to develop a curiosity about the world, and a love of learning, in the belief that this will encourage them to become lifelong learners and ready to make a valued contribution to society.

I am incredibly proud to be the Head teacher of this delightful school and warmly welcome visits from any parents or carers who wish to find out more.

If you would like to pop in, please telephone our office. We would love the opportunity to show you what our Amblecote family is all about.
