Grammar:

Verb:

A verb can express an action or a state of being in a sentence.

Adverb:

An adverb is a word or phrase that tells us more about the time, place or manner of the action described in the rest of the sentence. (It tells us more about the verb).

Fronted Adverbial

When an adverbial phrase is used as a sentence opener, it must be followed by a comma (in both French and English).

Grammar / Speaking:

Intonation:

Intonation describes how we can use our voice to help convey meaning in a sentence, and can highlight aspects of grammatical structure.

Grammar / Writing:

Punctuation:

In written sentences a comma is used to separate words in a series, and to represent intonation present in spoken language.
